Tape 487

Interview with Ruth Schneider

2 cassette tapes on Ruth Schneider and her life from 1938 in Vienna till today in England. Ruth grew up in Vienna. Her parents were Abish and Clara Meisels who were involved in the Yiddish Theatre; her father was a yiddish playwright and producer and her mother an actress in his company. They fled Vienna in 1938 and arrived in England and became enemy aliens in 1939. She was part of the British army and after the war became a dress designer and cutter. She married and had children after the death of her parents.

Interviewed by Mrs Debbie Seedburgh, 14/07/2005

Tape 370

interview with Sid Spellman

1 cassette tape featuring Sid Spellman who talks about life in the West End during the 1930's. Sid was part of the Great Portland Street Shul Choir and was involved in Yiddish Theatre and Zionist meetings. After the war Sid was trained as a printer and this became his profession.
